

The Famous Miner

Once, there was an 18-year old teenager named Mike. He went to college and studied geology. He loved geology so much that he wanted to become a famous miner. To become a miner, he trained himself to mine. He kept training and when he became 27, he was a good miner, but he wasn't famous yet. One day he was pacing around this house thinking about how to become famous when he got an amazing idea. "Maybe I can try to find those mysterious minerals other famous miners try to find," he said to himself. So he searched and searched for those rare minerals in caves. Finally, as he was about to give up, he saw a blue light glowing in a tunnel. He moved closer to it and saw rarest and most mysterious mineral, a gemstone made of diamond, emerald, and ruby!! Mike couldn't believe his eyes! It was so supercalifragilisticexpialidocious! Then, he got his pickaxe and slowly removed the rocks around it like a miner. Finished mining all the Rocks around and underneath it, the gemstone started to float in mid-air. Mike realized that it had some sort of magic. Then, he took the gemstone in his backpack and found his way out of the cave. He was the happiest man alive! He did not want the magic to get in the wrong hands, so he turned the gemstone in to the government and became a famous miner that has known all around the world. He was happy, but he wanted to find other minerals. He searched and searched and found other minerals like ruby, emerald, and diamond crowns. And then, when he was looking for another gemstone or mineral, he came across an article in the newspaper that talked about a legendary, magical pickaxe that had its parts spread across the world. One part was in in the U.S., two parts were in Russia, and the last part in China. He was really interested and would do anything to find this pickaxe. He searched lots of caves for 27 days. And finally, one day as he mining he saw a small little glowing substance. When he touched it, something behind him grabbed him into the darkness. He screamed, hoping someone would hear him, but no one did. No one ever saw him again...
