One day Ash,Jenna,and Henry were swimming in the pool. But all of a sudden Henry said "I'm going to hang out with my friends next door".But Ash and Jenna replied

"No we don't want you to get a grounded again" In a matter a fact you're grounded you shouldn't even be outside ".Henry responded " please don't tell mom and dad".

While having his knees on the ground pleading for them to not tell Mom and Dad.Then later Mom and Dad went upstairs to go check on Henry because usually he finds a way to go to his friends house and get into some kind of trouble.

A couple months that situation was forgotten already

But a new situation started on the first day of 6th grade.

He was hanging out with not so good boys.Then he got

Grounded again.So Mom and Dad put Henry in dance class to avoid him from getting in trouble all the time and plus he pretty good at dancing.But that didn't work when he got in 8th grade...He went to jail...his sisters so sad they couldn't even go to school they were basically crying all day.Finally,he got out of jail so now he's been in dance class now for quite a while now. He's so good that he decided that Jenna and Henry should do a duo which means a dance together.And their taking that duo to America's Got Talent..

And they got the...

GOLDEN BUZZER

They were so excited to go to the next round. They thought they could actually have a chance. They were so excited. It was 6:00 in the morning all the neighborhood was all quiet so they were guessing they were asleep. Because it was so early, usually if they ever wake up this early they're really grumpy they really never wake up this early cause they're not morning people but they were just so pumped.

They couldn't stop thinking about it the first thing they did was breakfast then told their parents about what happened,

Practiced their dance routine this was so much better that they would for sure win. It was finally 2:06 it was time to go on America's got talent. The judges were so amazed they gave them.....

1,000,000 dollars because they won. They couldn't stop bursting out crying. Once they came home they turned on the tv and started watching what they did, but they were not very amazed how the judges were.

When it was Halloween in 2017 Henry's, Jenna's, and Ash's mom died.

They were so devastated, for weeks and weeks soon when it was like 3 months later he stopped thinking of what happened. But soon when Henry was 26 Started taking drugs and couldn't stop taking them. His sisters try to tell him to stop but nothing worked. Cause Friday the 13 Jenna, Ash and their Dad went to Henry's to tell what drugs could do his body but it was kind of too late...

He was at the hospital, because thankfully one of his friends saw a big change. You could see his veins and the workers at the hospital were even scared of him, especially cause he's very muscular one of them was brave and talked to him he was so bad he had to go to surgery. I they were so scared because their family would always think the worst. They thought for a second what if he doesn't make it. 2 days later the surgery was done they rushed straight to the hospital. Did he make it ? YAHHHH he made it he made it. It was a miracle they even had to have a ice cream celebration. But a they found out he did stay alive but he doesn't have long to survive. He only has 10 days left. It's sad because they were planning on going to go to Las Vegas, because Jenna and Ash were really good at singing so they were going to be at a concert in Las Vegas. They tried to convince the director to see if he could make the show sooner , they told him about what happened and the reason why they should make the show sooner but it didn't work they tried everything. They were doomed they were so sad as days went Henry would get more sad by day , because he only had 2 more days left and he knew his life was soon gonna come to the end of his life. Jenna and Ash were practicing 1 day before the concert that means it was the last day for Henry to be in the life or you would say in the world it was the next day it was 5:00 it was Henry already gone but Ash and Jenna didn't go see Henry, because they knew they were not going to stop crying if they saw him. They went to the concert and it was so (say in singing voice) amazing. They were the new hit but the next day they went to see him but they were not even sad.
