

Lost...And Babies

By:Arelis R.

Once upon a time there was a boy named Andy who lived with his dog called Dimon. Andy is 8 years old, has black hair and brown eyes. Dimon is a husky. She has black and white fur, blue eyes and a furry tail. They met when Andy was three years old and Dimon was just a little puppy. Andy and Dimon met at a Animal Shelter and they have lived happily since then.

But one day, Dimon escaped from the house. Andy had to go all the way around the town every day looking for her,with no luck. He couldn't find her anywhere. After a couple of days, somehow Dimon found her way home. She looked kind of tired, so Andy got her and put her on the bed to rest.

After that, Andy thought Dimon needed to be checked by the veterinarian. He took her to the Animal Hospital near his house. Moments after, the vet surprised Andy with super good news. He told Andy what was happening with Dimon. Andy's eyes were wide opened. He was so excited. And the surprise was...Dimon is having babies!

A few months later, it was time to have the babies. Dimon had ten little cute babies. But after 5 days, Andy's mom said that she was getting tired of taking care of all those puppies. So Andy and the puppies, and his mom went to the pound and dropped the puppies off. On their way home, Andy was mad and sad. And he was like that for the rest of the day. On the next day, Andy's mom decided to keep at least one of the puppies. Then Andy got all happy again. And everybody lived happily ever after.
