

Passed Out Grandma

Danieliz D.

One day was selling food plates at my uncle's church, my grandma came to visit me. I told her to have a seat while I worked. My sister was ready to go and asked me to get her stuff. All of a sudden, her daughter who is my niece, ran into the street. We all got scared and my grandma got up out of her seat to see what was happening. While we were making sure she was okay, something happened to my grandma. She passed out on the floor. We all ran to her and tried to wake her up but she would not wake up. My uncle sent all of the kids into the church and I started to cry horribly. I did not want anything bad to happen to her because I love her. My uncle called 911 and the ambulance came to pick her up to take her to the hospital. I went with my brother in his car and we followed the ambulance. When we finally arrived at the hospital, we were able to see her. She had really bad black circles around her eyes and that made me cry even more. We stayed there the whole day while people took turns visiting her. After a while, she started to feel better so we celebrated by buying pizza. I was happy again because now she felt better than ever!
