

My second roller coaster

Aliyah S.

“We’re at the carnival!” said mom. “Yay!” I screamed. “Let’s go on a roller coaster,” said Adalynn. “NNOO!” I screamed. I had a flashback from Journey to Atlantis. “Well you’re going on it!” said Adalynn. “Why?” I asked, “Because you’re my sister,” said Adalynn. “Will I get $20?” I asked. “Maybe,” said Adalynn. “Will you mom and dad?” I asked. “Fine we will pay you this time.” Said mom. “Yes!” I screamed. “I guess I’ll go on,” I said. “Yes!” Adalynn screamed at the top of her lungs. “I feel dizzy,” I said. Then we were next. I had goosebumps from my head to my toes. I feel like barfing and I’m not even on. “Are you okay?” “We barely got on and you’re already scared?” Asked mom. “Yes , you know I’m afraid of heights!” I screamed. “ I forgot !” said mom.

“Really!” I yelled. “Here we go!” Said Adalynn. I can do this . I got this. “ AH!” I screamed at the top of my lungs. I think the whole carnival heard me. Adalynn sounds as quiet as a mouse, me and my mom were so loud. My dad was going crazy. We stopped for a second . “Yay!” I said. “We’re going faster,” screamed Adalynn. “Get off!” Said dad. “Okay!” I said very scared. I’m glad that’s over with. “I never want to go on a roller coaster again.” I never got my $20

...

AGAIN!
