

Yzabel M.

The Cave

One day, Yzabel and her friend Caitlyn were taking a stroll around the woods and they found a pretty, little butterfly. Yzabel and Caitlyn decided to follow the butterfly wherever it went since they knew their way home.

After one minute of following the butterfly, the butterfly went into a deep, dark, scary cave. Yzabel and Caitlyn decided that they weren't going into the spooky cave because they heard an animal growl, the sound the growl made echoed in the cave.

Yzabel was curious what could've been in that cave, she wanted to go inside. Then Caitlyn said, "Um. Yzabel I don't really think it is a good idea to go inside the cave. What if there is a snake or even a bear!" After Caitlyn stopped talking Yzabel said, "Caitlyn, you don't have to go in the cave, I will. I read lots of books about stuff like this."

Yzabel and Caitlyn decided to go home. When Yzabel got home she went upstairs and packed water, a snake venom kit, hand sanitizer, a flashlight along with some extra batteries just in case, and most importantly, a tasty banana for a snack. She packed all her stuff in a pink and purple backpack.

Yzabel walked back to the woods and turned on her flashlight. Yzabel was ready for anything so, without fear she walked into the cave. She heard the growling noise again. The deeper into the cave, the louder the growling.

After walking about 25ft. into the cave she heard the growling noise come closer to her, she stayed still. It was there, right in front of her, staring down it was a brown, blue-eyed, puppy. "This is not scary at all!" Yzabel said in surprise. The little puppy looked injured so she went home and asked mom if she could drive them to the vet. Mom said, "no" but Yzabel begged.

Finally, mom said, "yes." The puppy was brought to the vet. After a bath and an x-ray, the vet said the puppy had a scratch on its leg so they wrapped the little puppy's leg with a bandage. Yzabel asked her mom if she could adopt the puppy and name it Brownie, mom said yes. They went to Petco and bought a leash, a cage, dog shampoo, and a few toys. They brought Brownie home and played with him.
