By : Nolan T.

Once upon a time there was a prince on a quest to save the princess. Then one day as the prince was walking in the deep woods, he found a weird looking house. He knocked on the door then the door opened slowly. He looked and he saw nobody so he let himself in. Then the door closed and a few minutes later the owner came in and spotted the prince and he was a wizard. The prince asked for help from the wizard and the wizard said yes. But there's one thing I need to tell you said the wizard. "What?" said the prince. Well the princess was found by the witch so if you want to find the princess follow me. "Ok" said the prince. So the prince and the wizard went to the witch's and snuck inside. When they got inside they saw the witch and behind her was the princess in a large cage. The prince whispered let's go. The wizard said no let's wait for the witch to leave. "Ok" said the prince. Then 30 minutes later the witch finally left so the prince and wizard went to save the princess. But when they got outside the witch found them. The witch and wizard fought for hours and hours until the wizard finally killed the witch and all of them returned to the castle. The wizard was rewarded and the prince and princess got married and lived happily ever after.
