Chapter 1: First grade, And meeting Lexi

2014, first grade five year old. “It’s gonna be okay!” my mom said as she got out of the car with me. I look at the school and gulp “Mommy im scared” I said while walking to the entrance of the school. When we make it inside my mom talked to the lady at the front desk while I looked around. Then I hear, “Go ahead to your class sweetie” the lady at the front desk says as my mom waves me off. I was walking around looking for my class But there was a problem. I was LOST! While im walking around looking for my classroom I hear a voice say “Are you Khaleia?” a lady said while smiling at me. “Yes ma’am” I said nervously thinking I was in trouble “This is your classroom sweetie come on in”, She said in a calm soothing voice. I walked in and everyone turned to look at me “Attention Please!” The Lady said “I would like to welcome our new student!” She said. “My name is Kahleia, Khaleia Christine Jones”. I said nervously. I felt sick to my stomach. “You can go sit down by Lexi” she said as Lexi raised her hand high. I sat by her and she whisper yelled, “My name is Lexi! Wanna be friends?” <y heart was racing and I was nervous but exited at the same time. “Okay sure!” After class it was recess time and Lexi came up to me “Hi Khaleia!” She says “Hi Lexi!” I said back. “Would you maybe wanna be bestfriends?” She says while smiling shyly with her hands behind her back. My eyes lit up and a smile immediately grew on my face. "Yes, yes!" I said excitedly while smiling. Then Lexi grabs my hand and we walk to the swings. "Let's play Khaleia!" We both climb on the swings then I turned and look at Lexi "I'm so glad I met you" I said while smiling. "I'm glad I met you to Khaleia!" She says while smiling back.
