

Zy'Braylin P., 4th Grade

The M Squad

One day there was a plant that had super villain and there leader name was unknown so it was hard for the m squad to find him and the m squad had five people in the squad one name was max, mark, mac, maden, and the leader name was Mr. M. So one day one of the villains didn't like that plant and went to earth and he landed and he landed and really didn't know what to do then one day he robbed the bank with his super powers and the m squad noticed that he was robbing the bank and they called to him and they told him tell them where they were he told them it was a plant called the rockin so the m squad flew to that plant and they battled the villains they won but they lost their leader and a week after they brought him back alive with a gem that the villains had it went on and on so they had more battles. The end.