

Trapped in the Snow.

One snowy day on Magic Lane there was a girl home alone. She wasn't an ordinary girl, she was a witch, not one of those green witches, a beautiful and smart witch and her name was Bethany. Her parents had been on vacation for the holidays. Her house was full of magical objects that she didn't know of yet and her grandpa was missing. She went to bed that night not knowing what was going to happen the next morning. In the morning she woke up covered in snow. "It's so c-c-cold!" Bethany said, "Where am I?" She looked around and saw a room, it was gigantic, She looked for details and found out that the huge room was her house!!! "This is my house, so I must be in my family's snow globe," said Bethany "I must be dreaming." she said. She hit herself on the head "Ouch!" She was not dreaming this was really in a snowglobe! It was super dark and Bethany couldn't see so she cast a spell to make light "Lugnus" . She walked a long way before she saw a little cottage and ran to it for shelter. She knocked and a little snowman answered the door. Bethany thought she was going to faint. There were actually 4 snowmen. "I'm Snowy" said the one with the head band. "I'm Billy," said the one with the shirt. "I'm Sam," said the guy with the tie. "And I'm Snowdrop" said the shortest and she was wearing a bow. They let Bethany in and made a fire. The cottage was small but cozy, they had 4 cozy small beds and 1 big bed, and the room looked like someone else lived with them. "Does anybody live with ya'll?" Bethany asked "Yes" and Snowy said "Mr. Tom Michall, he has a granddaughter he talks about a lot." "Did you say Michall?" Bethany asked " Because I think he is my grandpa and he's been missing for five years" " Yes, he is trying to find a way out of this snowglobe so he could get back to you! He is on the highest mountain searching for a magic key, There is a legend that there is a magic key hole somewhere on the glass of the snowglobe and if you find the key you must get to the keyhole in 2 hours." said Sam "2 hours? Isn't that a bit too long?" Bethany asked " trust us it takes a while to get there" said Snowy " Do you know where he is I want to see him" Bethany said "We will send you in the morning"

The next morning Bethany got all her cozy and warm clothes and set off for the mountains. She searched and searched and then she found him “GRANDPA!!!” Bethany yelled loud so he could hear her “Bethany? BETHANY!!!” grandpa yelled. They squeezed each other tightly “I missed you so much!” they said at the same time. They went to go look for the key. “I know what the key looks like, it looks like a heart and a star at the same time.” Grandpa said loudly, there was a snow storm and they had to get through it, Bethany slipped “OW!” Bethany had sprained her ankle so Grandpa had to help her walk. The snow storm was getting stronger and they had to hide under a tree for 20 minutes. The snow storm had passed and they looked high and low then they found it! It was so shiny and sparkly. “Grandpa Grandpa, I found it,” said Bethany. They were amazed. They then searched for the magical key hole. Their time was almost up, they had to look quickly. “I see a little light over there” Bethany said “We better go check it out” Grandpa said. They walked a long way and found the keyhole and the snowman were there too and they said goodbye. Bethany said “I’ll visit soon” And they went home. “Hey my ankle isn’t sprained anymore!” Bethany said. When Grandpa and Bethany got home they baked cookies for Bethany's parents. When they did get home dad said “Johnny is that you?” “Oh Dad!” said Mom “Come in Mom and Dad” Bethany said “We are all home now!” “What do you mean all home?” Mom asked, “Nothing!!!” Bethany and Grandpa said together.
