

The Dog that Survived

By Matt T.

Once upon a time, there was a dog named Jerry and he loved playing soccer with his owner but one day there were 5 aliens that appeared on earth. They wanted to take over the world so the aliens blew up the earth and Jerry was the only thing on the earth that survived the explosion. He looked for food for days and Jerry was starving to death. He was somehow alive after 2 weeks. It was a miracle. He has a miracle run. It was crazy. He was believing God was right by his side. Then a bear was in his way so he juked him. Then he went deep in the forest and he was never seen again.
