

The lost crown of the vamps

By Remi B

Last Friday, I will never forget.

It was a dark, foggy, and stormy night. I was looking out my bedroom window not knowing what was going to happen the very next day. As I walked back to bed I thought I saw something fly through my bedroom window. "I must be going crazy," I said to myself. As I drifted to sleep I felt that someone else was there.

When I awoke I checked my clock, 11:00!?! That's when I realized a bat was sitting on my face! I immediately knew it was a vampire bat because of its short muzzle and it had bigger fangs than normal bats. When I sat up it bit me on the nose! Weirdly enough when it did, I felt... different and it didn't hurt either.

As I got out of bed I gently placed the bat on my pillow, when I did, it started to hover in front of my face! Then it landed on my shoulder and started pointing at my bedroom door. As I walked around my house, the bat I had decided to call Wings, would point in a different direction and we would go thataway.

As we got closer to the back door, Wings started jumping around like its little feet were on fire! When I opened the backdoor it jumped off my shoulder and was smacking its little wings in my face in the process of doing so. Then it flew about 5 feet away, started hovering, then turned to me like it wanted me to follow it.

As we walked, I looked around in amazement at how beautiful the forest is. We walked/flew until we found the biggest oak tree I had ever seen! It. Was. Huge. Once we got to the base of the tree Wings started to fly up to the top of the tree. Then it landed on one of the branches and made a squeaky sound as if it wanted me to come up.

When it saw me trying to climb the tree, it flew down and shook its little head no! Then it tried to pull me down, but I think I was too heavy for it so it jumped down and pointed to the ground like it wanted me to get down. So I climbed down and picked it up.

Then Wings started to jump up and down and flap its little wings. Then it stopped and pointed at me like it wanted me to try. So I started to jump up and down and flap my arms like Wings had done. I didn't think much of it. Let alone thinking it would actually work. But I tried, I closed my eyes and flapped as hard as I could.

Then I realized, I was not touching the ground!! I opened my eyes, and I was like 15 feet above ground! And I was still going higher! Wings was already on the branch waving its little claws at me. Once I got the hang of it, I was able to land on the branch next to Wings.

Then wings walked up to the tree and put its claw on the trunk. After a few seconds, a hole opened up and wings jumped in. When we got to the bottom, I saw two vampires talking. One of them saw me, ran up to me and started hugging me. She said that she was my mother and I was kidnapped when I was a baby by humans who then altered my genes to make me more human.

Like they made my teeth smaller and less pointy. They also made it so I could not turn into a bat or fly. Just then the bat I was following transformed into a girl that looked to be my age. The girl had fiery red hair, and deep blue eyes. "This is your sister." My mom said. "Her name is Scarlett."

"Hi!" Said Scarlet.

"What is going on?" I thought to myself.

"Oh and I can read minds!" Scarlet said. "But mom says it's 'not polite' so I try not to. But you're my sister so it's different, I think"

"Heh" I chuckled to myself.

Then Scarlet said, "And to answer your question, they also took away your memory so you can't remember what happened before you were turned humanoid. "Well, that explains a lot!" I said. Then I burst out laughing! "Haha," Scarlett said. "We sent your sister to look for you." said the man mom was talking to when I got there. "Oh, and that's dad." Scarlet said.

“Ok, hi dad.” I said skeptically. “So what do they want with us?” I asked. “The humans I mean.” “Well,” said dad. “At first they wanted to learn about us ,but when they realized how powerful we are they wanted to kill us. That's how they figured out we are immortal. It's how we did too. So they tried to make us more like them, and that worked.”

“So how did you know it was me?” I said. “I mean, there must be 100 houses in that village, with 5 people in each house.”

“Well, vampires have a special thing to help us find each other quickly, for if we get separated. We can feel each other's presence. But that presence feeling is stronger for families.”

“Ok one question, is there any royalty? Like kings or queens?” Mom and Dad exchanged glances. ”Honey I think it's time they know.” said Dad.

“Know what?” Scarlet said.

“Well, we have needed to tell you this for a while but...your mom is the queen. And I'm the king.” Dad said.

“Wait” me and scarlet said in unison. ”Does this mean, eeeeeeeeeeeeeee!!!!!! We're princesses!!!” We screamed!

“Yes but we need to tell you something, your brother, Hunter, was also stolen.”

“Wait, what!?” Scarlet said.

“Yes, and we need you two to go save him.” Mom said.
