

Abigail A.

The Girl Who Loved to FLY!

A girl wants to fly! No wings! No problem!

"I wish I could fly." says a girl named Sally Thomas as she looks up from a tree. "You can't fly, you have no wings!" says her brother. Sally says "I can't!" "I'll ask mom. I'm older I'm right." Says her brother.

"MOM, MOM, MOM, where are you. In the kitchen! Okay coming!" says Sally. "Hey, mom my brother says I can't fly." Sally says. "Well you can't fly." Mom says. "I can't!" "No you can't, gravity stops you so quickly that you can't even see what it's like to be in the air."

"I'm home!" says Sally's father. "Dad! Mom and my brother say I can't fly! Ph but you can! You just need air planes. What are air planes? Things that you use to – before he could finish Sally's mom said don't tell her only boys use planes! You mean I can't fly?" Sally says shaking. "You CAN fly!" Says Sally's father. "You CAN do it! You CAN. I WILL!"

AND SHE DOES!

THE END