

Dominic R. and Tristin B.

The Legend of the Thing

One day Jack and his brother were playing catch in the backyard. Jack missed the ball and rolled in the grave yard He went in the grave yard he saw something grabed the ball and ran away. John went home told his brother "go inside the house" and told his mom "mom mom something took my ball in the grave yard". "Stop telling lies" his mom said. "Mom I'm serious im not telling a lie." (John slammed the door) and went outside. When he went outside he saw the thing that took him and knocked him out. When he wake up he was back in the grave yard. He saw the thing he had red eyes and his suit was black and had a sythe in his han's. John said mom! Help. The thing said There is no escape now. John run's home he thinks "I must stop him but how.

(Next day) John went to the store and bought lot's of hail's and a baseball bat he buy's it and then he get's a hammer and hammer's the nail's in the bat. He get's his brother but he's no there he looks for him but no sight he calls his name TOM! He said I don't need him he go's into the grave yard. He see's Tom he scream's TOMS!?! He see's him on the floor dead John cry's John wip's his tear's he barged in he yelled come out here he see's him John got his baseball bat ready and bam! He knocks out the thing he say's That's what you get he keep's hitting the thing and then something happened's in faze's through the ground and John went home he told his mom what happened to tom...5 months Later John and his mom are at the funarl. When he got home he was crying in his room he pulled out a picture of him and Tom he hugs it titeley To be Conteneded...