She Put a Spell on Me

Beep, Beep, Beep!

Hit the snoos button is all I could think of, as I reached for it I could not hit I which was weird because it was in the same spot every day. So I hopped out of bed after knocking every thing off the night stand and that's I noticed my body seemed way smaller in my P.j. than mormal. So then I ran to the bathroom to look in the mirror. I gasped from shock when I realized I was in my sister's body.

Next I went to wake up my sister and tell her what had happened. Wene I walked in she was laughing and said, "it worked."

I asked her "What worked"?

"She said "the spell I put ON YOU.

"Why did you put a spell on me"?

You have it easier and get to do funner thing than I do.

"I told her whatever and that she will be wishing to go back to the things were before real soon.

She seriously had no idea. I had so many test and projects that needed to be done at school.

As we walled into school I told her.

"Its on and have a fin."

Wene I saw her at lunch I asked," So how is it going"?

She tried to pretend it was going great.

I knew she wasn't being honest.

The teacher kept asking me if I was ok.

I said Yes.

She said "ok", but I do want you to know that I see you coming out of your shell and it is nice."

It made me think geeze, what is my sister like here at school?

It didn't sound like the girl I knew at home.

I could only wonder what my teachers and friends were thinking.

I worried about all the things she was going to mess up for me. How much trouble was I going to be in. All these things were rushing through my mind. As the day came to a end I was in a hurry to get home and hear about my sisters day and hope she was ready to undo her spell.

When we got home we both ran upstairs and I pressed her to tell me how the day went under her spell. She said, "well I had a test in almost every class, didn't get to hang out with friends, have enough work to last a month, oh and also got detention. "DETENTION!" "Well are you ready to change back then" I asked her. She said, "Yes!" Ok then get to it. The next morning came and for some reason it did not work. I was still stuck in my sister's body. We were both full of shock. She promised she did everything the right way. I yelled "its all your fault". SO for the next three days we were stuck this way. My sister just wanted to be back to her normal self where things were actually easier and just as fun. I told her we can't wish to be someone else when things get hard. "I am me and you are you and you will get a chance to do the same things. She gave me a big hug and in that moment we finally switched back. I yeld "Yes!" I asked her "What did you learn?" "Not to wish time away or to be someone else." We hugged and said I love you to each other. THE END
