

Jasmine A.

Ash the Lost Girl

Hi I'm Ash I'm 11 years old. My best friend is Jay. Me and Jay get bullied I don't know why? So one day Jay moved away I was sad. Jay was my only buddy know she's gone! I don't what to do? The next day everybody was quit. I asked the teacher Ms. K. She said "Jay's family got in a accident Jay is ... dead"! I ran out crying. I woke up on Saturday. I heard a voice I looked around there was nobody there? I got so scared. So I did something that made me feel better. Going exploring in the woods! I suddenly heard the voice, it said "stop I just want to be your friend". I said "um...okay". I woke up again I heard that same voice it followed me into the wood. It said "bad choice to be my friend". I said "what?" It started to chase me I got lost! The next day my mom Jenny was watching the news. I was on it. The news lady said "this girl has passed away by hiker we found her body in the woods". I'm sorry for the parents lost!

The End

Authors Note:

I wrote this book to start my dream of becoming an author. I showed this book out to Crystal Allen because she helped me to overcome my fear of writing a book. Now I can because of her! This book is for Crystal Allen! And the readers.