

John S. and Kaleb M.

The Wrong Apartment

There were two kids named John and Kaleb they were walking to their apartment from school. Their apartment number is 12 but they went to apartment 13. They got unpacked to take a nap But every thang was gone. They notice it was the wrong apartment. They tried to get out but it Jammed "John and Kaleb yelled help but no one heard them they heard creaking above them. The creaking stop then it got louder they got scared. The phone rang and they picked it up it Said "don't hand up! they did not hang up. They were shivering scared they wanted to hang up but the guy said I can see you if you hang up I will do something so they did not hang up They tried to b rake the door down but it did not brake Kaleb and John almost dropped the phone but they cote it. they stop trying to escape they got tired they tired to find a window but all the windows are blocked off with boards. They go hungry they had two cookies each. Kaleb and john ate all of the cookies but they were still hungry. John told Kaleb to try to find another phone.

He found a hammer instead of a phone under the bed he told John. John left the phone hanging we went to a window they got the boards off and broke the window they got out got to the floor safe. They called 911 reported to the cops.
