

Matthew A.

The boy's name is Matt. He really wanted to be a soccer player. However, he did not have cleats, so he had to do chores to win some money. When he had enough money, he bought the cleats then he joined a team, but his teammates did not like him. When it was a big game time he tried his very best to show his talent and then he dribbled on every one and scored!!!! After that he became the best teammate.
