

“The Life About a Girl”

by Rosamaria V.

One time there was a girl named Rosamaria. She was born in March, at 4:00 p.m. I'm the little one. I have 1 brother and 1 sister. When I was 4 years old I started school. I remember that the first day of school I was nervous. My mom took me to class. The first day was cool and all but when I was in third grade it was boring, but I still loved school.

Then, when I was in fourth grade I started to have more and more homework. I still did my homework because I did not want to get in trouble. And now I'm in fifth grade and I'm 11 years old. I'm older and I have two friends. Their names are Denise and Brittany. Denise is my best friend. Denise has been with me on my good and bad days. She will always be my best friend. I will always love her. She is the best. One thing I love that I do is play the violin. One of my dreams is to pass all my grades and graduate.
