Riyan K.

Once upon a time there was a girl Filming a 24 hour challenge in a haunted house at night. But when she made it to her destination, her taxi driver left her at the haunted house all alone! She tried to call him, but it was too late. Period. By the way, this girl's name is Kayla, Just remember that. As soon as she walked in.... CLICK, CLACK, CLICK, CLACK! The light flashed on and off. Glass broke, the floor underneath her cracked, and worst of all, a small voice saying, "come play with ME!" She ran and ran as fast as she could, but the doors closed! Kayla closed her eyes but as soon. As she opened them... she got attacked by the monster! She got taken to a graveyard. When she woke up, she was trapped in a coffin! There was a big lock, so Kayla looked around and found a key to open the coffin. Seconds passed and Kayla knew something was wrong. Okay, brace yourself. She lost her memory! She did not even know how old she was or what her name was! It was very weird, but she thought it through and wondered a great question. Who could have put her in a coffin and attacked her? So she got out of the coffin and began wandering for clues. She stepped inside of the haunted house and saw a broken picture of a family. But just wait., It had a little boy on it. She continued, searching for more clues. Next, she found a splatter of green, gooey, poisonous juice on the ground. She knew who could do a bad crime like this, but she found one more thing, a taxi badge on the staircase! So guess who did this? The taxi driver! And the same time she found out who did the crime, the girl also got all her memory back! So Kayla called all. And the police came to arrest the taxi driver AKA the kidnapper. But she did not know how to get home. So Kayla called her mom and dad to pick her up and take her home! And Kayla lived happily ever after.

The end.

Moral of the story, don't go to a haunted house where a ride with strangers.
