

Mission Mars

By Kingston G.

Chapter One: Getting Ready

It's Wednesday....they're getting ready for the test flight. Meanwhile, astronauts are studying and playing around. The astronauts decided to go outside after finishing studying. "The rocket ship looks great." says the astronaut named Kingston. "Hey Jacob, Kingston, look at the inside," Alex said.

Chapter Two: The Break-In

"Good night, guys," Alex said. It was night and Jacob woke up. He went outside and he saw a villain----actually two! They started running away. Jacob went to go get the guys. "Guys, guys, I saw a robber!" Jacob said. "You're joking," Alex said. "No, I'm not!" Jacob replied. "Guys, guys, stop arguing," Kingston said, "if there was a break in, we'll check the cameras." Kingston said.

Chapter Three: The Mystery

"Hey, there are the villains," Jacob said. "Computer, scan the villains," Kingston said. BEEP BOOP BOP scanning scanning... "Ugh, why does this take so long?" Alex said. Finally....BEEP! The villains are Ty and Owen. "Locate them now, computer," Kingston said. Locating....no sites. Looks like we have to call the investigators Dickson and Beckett.

Chapter Four: The Investigation

RING! RING! RING! "Hello, this is the investigators." "Hi this is Kingston," Kingston said, "Is this Dickson?" "Yes, it is," Dickson said. "Can you get Beckett and come?" "Yea I can. We will be there in a day."

Next day... "Hey guys," Dickson said. "What up," Kingston said. "Alright, what did you call us here for?" "Well, there was a break in. The criminals' names were Ty and Owen." "Oh, I know them. We will be ready in a day." replied Dickson.

Chapter Five: The Thieves Base

The next morning.... “Alright, let’s get on the plane.” The plane started to take off. “Wait! Wait!” Dickson shouted. They used their grappling hooks to catch the plane and get on. “Looks like we made it,” Beckett said.

Five hours later.... “We’re finally here,” Beckett said, “Alright, let’s get to our hotel.” At the hotel, Beckett got the computer out. “Ok, let’s see,” Beckett said. As they checked the computer, they found a virus. They scanned the computer with their phone. Virus made by Ty and Owen. “The villains!” Beckett said.

They scanned it again. They found out where the bad guy's base was. “GASP!” I think I found the bad guy's base.” Dickson said. “Where?” “674121” “Ok, let’s go there at night.”

Chapter Six: The Plan and Break In

YAWN! “Are you tired?” Beckett said. “I’m sorry I’m sorry, let’s go.” They got in their car and drove there. “Alright, we’re here. What's the plan?” Beckett asked. “So, the plan is, you are going to the top, I’m going to the window, and on my go, we’ll break in and surround them.” “Okay, got it! At my position.” Beckett said. Dickson was ready, too. They got ready and broke in. “Put your hands up, you’re under arrest!” They put them in handcuffs and got in the car.

Chapter Seven: Take Off

RING! RING! RING! “Hello,” Kingston said. “Hey Kingston.” After Dickson talked to Kingston about them catching the villains.... “Hey guys, Dickson just said they caught them.” HOORAY! Alright, let’s get ready for takeoff! 1 hour later... 10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1, BLAST OFF!

They took off fast and were off to the races. 10 hours later...

They were all sleeping when suddenly one of them woke up. It was Kingston. “Wait guys, who’s driving? We’re about to crash!” They suddenly swerved. “How did we swerve? Nobody touched the wheel! Is there somebody in here other than us?” Suddenly, their TV turned on. “What the heck!” GLITCH! GLITCH! GLITCH! “Wa ha ha ha ha” the villain named Grayson said. “Look what I have. If you don’t get to Mars by midnight, I will blow up the whole solar system with two nuclear bombs!”

Chapter Eight: Going to Mars

“Okay, whos’ going to drive?” Kingston said. “I will,” Jacob said. “Good. Computers, set course for Mars.” Calculating course, course set. “Let’s go!” “Hey guys, I’m going to get a snack,” Alex said. “Me too.” “Hey, can y’all get me one?” Jacob asked.

Chapter Nine: The Finale

“Hey guys,” Jacob said, “We’re here,” “YES! Hurry, it’s 11:56! Computer, track Grayson.” Tracking Grayson.... “Guy’s let’s go! He’s five minutes away, run!”

Five minutes later... “We made it. Come out and fight like a man!” “Y’all are late. I already started the timer, and the only way to stop it is to get through him.”

The fight went on and on until this happened, Kingston rolled on his back, shot a bullet, broke the robot, and Jacob stopped the time. “YES! Wait, he’s running away! Get him!” We got him and put handcuffs on him! “We did it!” “Ah darn.” said the villain.

Chapter Ten: Back Home

Let’s go back home! Approximately ten hours later, “The bros! The bros! Thank you!” the crowd said. “We did it!” the bros said.
