

Little Clumsy Incredible Pig who saved people with a bad report !!!

Once upon a time a little pig that is 8, his name is Ovrrie, he was smart and a curious little pig. He loved to be in action, like a superhero when he grows up. He also has a little friend [pet] that could talk. Ovrrie talked and played with him every single day. One day somebody was in trouble, young ladies in a building on [grand park way dr] it was on the news all over town!!!! So Ovrrie the incredible pig was on the go. He got a water hose and started firing water at the building, the two ladies were safe. Everything was great But..... the next day, the news paper was a bad news paper to Ovrrie and the two ladies. Ovrrie started to think "why do I have a bad report, that dosen't make any sense.It's been many day's with his bad report!!!!!!One day he went to court and standed up with the two young ladies.and he said'i saved the two young ladies right? here ,why do I have to get a report huh???' the judge said "everybody was saying that you were to little to save two ladies and other rude stuff"why didn't do a bad report on the firefighters for not coming to save the two ladies?!! said ovrie.The judge said in a low voice "Because they help the community more than ever and police men and women.But we got to respect them because they put there life into helping us" SO! I help in alot of ways too! Like recycling, pick up litter" Ovrrie said in a loud voice and Ovrrie was very mad at everybody in the whole state of texas. the judge said "fine" "fine what" Ovie said "fine you'll get a good report for a month the judge said "yay, wa-hoo" Ovie was full of cheer! He was so excited! The next day there were a lot of good reports!
