

Freddy's Friend

Every year, Freddy spends Thanksgiving week with his grandparents. He is nine years old. His parents live in a small town out of the city. Everyday, Freddy visits his best friend Tommy, but this year he could not play with him. He moved to another country, but Freddy did not have a clue where he moved. Freddy was really sad, but his grandparents had a surprise for him. When Freddy entered his room, a little box was shaking. Freddy opened it. It was a cute little puppy! He named it Tom. He loved it! He could not stop hugging Tom!

In the morning, Freddy went outside with Tom. He climbed to his tree house, thinking about all the adventures he had with Tommy. Freddy was still sad because his friend Tommy was living somewhere else. He decided to look everywhere with Tom and try to find his friend, but he never found him.

On Thanksgiving, Freddy and Tom were just hanging out. Freddy's grandfather started making a huge turkey with mash potatoes and other delicious food. It was a great Thanksgiving dinner and the whole family was there. Freddy had a really good time, but now it was time to go home. Freddy asked his parents if he could stay in grandpa's house for a few more days. Mom and dad had to work, but grandpa didn't have to work and let Freddy stay a few more days if he wanted.

A couple of days later, grandpa took Freddy back home. Mom and Dad were waiting for Freddy. They told Freddy that there was a new neighbor. It was Freddy's old friend Tommy. Freddy was so surprised that he couldn't believe Tommy was his new neighbor. The next Thanksgiving, Freddy spent time with his best friend Tommy.
