

John Becomes a Rockstar
By Elvis A.

Boom!! I'm on stage performing in front of a bunch of adoring fans. This story starts with me, John, and my high school teacher, Mrs.Sonnier. I'm 17 years old and I'm a rock star! You might be wondering how I became a rock star at such a young age. It began at our high school musical. We all thought Jason Brown was going to win. He is the best singer in high school and he is really popular. But this time, when I sang, everybody clapped FOR ME. They recorded me and posted it on youtube. My video had over 2 billion views and I got offered a record deal. I went on tour and recorded a bunch of songs and I started my own recording business called "Johns Journey."
