

The Haunted House
By Jolene J.

There once was a boy named Alex. Alex's friends dared him to go to an abandoned house that was next door to him. He was scared to go, but he did not want to be a scaredy cat, so he accepted the dare. It was the day that Alex was to go to the abandoned house. He got dressed and told his friends that he was ready. His friends watched him go up to the door and open it. When Alex opened the door and walked in, it suddenly closed behind him. It was dark inside! He heard a voice saying, "Whooo," and he got the chills! The first room was the living room. The couch was ripped and there was a dusty book and a table that was colored on. The second room was the kitchen. There were dirty dishes and the wood on the floor was cracking. The third room was the bathroom and the mirror was dusty and the water was on. The last room was the bedroom. It was dark and there was a letter. When Alex started reading it, he heard a voice saying, "Get out!" Alex ran outside. His friends asked him what happened. Alex told them the whole story. They told Alex they were sorry for being mean to him and being bullies. They all became good friend and they never talked about that day again.