

Bella The Ghost
By: Lilyana P.

Have you ever heard of Bella the ghost? Her parents were very rude to her when she was young. Every day she would pick up her little brother from school, but one day it was raining. She could not drive in the rain and she told her parents. All they said was, "Pick up your brother!" BOOM!! She crashed and died. Her parents got a call from the police saying that she died. Her parents and brother did not care and 20 years later, she haunted her brother and parents until they died.
