Title: Cinderella Twist

Once upon a time there was this girl named Cinderella. She was very mean to her step sisters. She became mean when her father died. Her stepmother was very kind to her but over the years she became a rebel. Once Cinderella was very, very, extra very bad so she got grounded for a week but Cinderella, being sneaky like she is, ran out of the house and went to the store. Most rich people went to that store but Cinderella did not know so there was the most handsome man she had ever seen. So she walked very cutely to get his attention. The prince thought it was weird but he had to be nice. So he walked away but Cinderella was getting closer and closer when he was getting farther. She got closer until her step mom came in and took Cinderella home. She was very mad. The next morning she asked her servants (her sisters) to make her some food. It was a normal day. Cinderella was bossy and rude but something changed. A package was delivered to the sisters including Cinderella. It was about the rent. The mom said two girls have to work. Of course Cinderella said her two sisters had to go to work and she will stay at home painting her nails because she is LAZY but her mom said no. So she had to work. Her sister Anastasia wanted to work to get some extra money but Drizella her other sister did not want to work like Cinderella. The next day Cinderella and Anastasia went to work at a small cafe and the prince came in the cafe because so many paparazzis were following him. So of course Cinderella went and try to kiss him but NO! The prince did not want to kiss since she was very, very, extra very weird. Anastasia stopped them from kissing. Cinderella was mad but the prince was thankful. Anastasia took the prince's order. He ordered one donut. That's all. When Anastasia went to cook the donut Cinderella was telling all the lies. For example she will tell the prince that Anastasia was very mean, rude, and only cares about herself and her step mom too. The prince actually believed her. When Anastasia came, that's when she stopped telling the lies. When Anastasia came to give the prince food he looked at her a disgusting look because he was thinking that she was very mean so Anastasia forgot all about it. Cinderella left early and Anastasia stayed to close up the store. Then she went home. The next day the prince wanted a dance at the castle. Each person from the village got a invitation. So Cinderella was not allowed to go because remember she went out without permission to the store. That sneaky Cinderella decided to go anyway. At the dance, she saw that Anastasia was dancing with the prince. They had started talked to each other and the prince was beginning to realize that she was not so bad after all. Actually, Anastasia was very nice. This made Cinderella so angry. She pulled Anastasia to the side and started to yell mean things to her. Anastasia ran away in tears, leaving her shoe behind. The prince wanted to find her, but all he had left was her shoe. The next day, he went out to try and find Anastasia with the shoe. Cinderella saw the prince coming to their house and went to hide the other shoe of Anastasia. Luckily, the shoe the prince had was only a perfect fit for Anastasia and the prince saw how mean and weird Cinderella really was. Anastasia and the prince rode off and lived happily ever after while Cinderella was left to wash all the dishes at the cafe by herself forever.
