Title: Road TO THE CHAMPIONSHIP

One day in NBA practices Mr.Jonsen was teaching the players of the Milwaukee Bucks how to run a play. All of a sudden Mr.Jonsen fractured his ankle and fell to the ground. He screamed and yelled because of the pain. The players ran to him and asked if he was okay. They told the ambulance to hurry up. They didn't have practice for a while and that changed their career. When they didn't have a practice they played horrible. After 2 weeks the coach came back and they redeemed themselves. They practiced super hard and won 10 games in a row. In the end, they made it to the finals against the Phoenix Suns. It was a close game and they won by 2 points!
