

How Mr. Bob Dinosaur and His Family Died

By: Leandro

69 million years ago, Mister Bob dinosaur, Mrs. Dab dinosaur, and their children were drinking and eating to get energy. The dinosaur family thought they were having a great day, but little did they know that danger was coming. Suddenly meteor showed up and then collided with the earth.

The dinosaur family ran for cover, but the collision created a huge explosion, then a huge cloud of smoke and ashes spread throughout the earth. They did not stand a chance. Mr. Dinosaur tried to protect his family. He searched for a place to take cover, but he could not see anything around him. Everywhere was dark and filled with smoke.

Bob dinosaur and his family died together trying to find a place to hide. Before they died, they told each other how much they loved their family, and that they were sad they were dying.
