

Best Friend's Adventure

One day there were three little girls. Their names were Emily, Olivia and Leah. They were best friends and they traveled the world together. But they eventually forgot all about each other. One day, their parents reminded them all they were best friends from the start.

Soon, they would see each other at the store so Emily asked her parents if it was alright if they all got together. The parents agreed.

When the friends were in middle school, they got teased a lot about their hairdos. They didn't even pay attention to the teasing. Then they talked to their mothers, saying that they wanted their hairdos the same way. Then they talked to them about getting the same clothes.

Years later, they were in college. They also got teased lots in college, but yet again, they did not even mind it. After college, they were going to movies like Joker, Maleficent, A Dogs Journey and agents of Shield.

They all started jobs at the Woodlands Mall. At the mall there was perfume, clothes, lipstick, toy stores and food. The friends started work at the bakery in the Woodlands mall and sold cookies, cakes, cupcakes, ice cream and brownies. After work, they wanted to go meet their families. So, they surprised their families with a visit.

The families usually cook bacon, eggs, sausage, potatoes, pancakes, and biscuits. They ate crackers, a tuna sandwich and chips for lunch. Then, for dinner they had chicken, rice and beans, broccoli, and burgers and fries. After dinner, they had ice cream, and cake, brownies and cookies, and also cupcakes.

The families usually took turns baking. They all enjoyed their food. Then, the parents got them something big. They would like it so much that even the parents wanted it. It was so so cute and curious. They even got them food and treats. They loved to play and loved to go on walks. The parents got them all cute puppies. Their birthdays were even on the same day.

The puppies all had different colors of fur. Emily's dog breed was a Labrador Retriever. It has a tiny bit of white on her tail. And Emily named her puppy Bella. Bella was always calm and loves to go on walks often. Bella usually plays with toys.

Olivia's dog breed was a Havanese. The color was brown with a little bit of black and white. Olivia named her dog Rosa. Rosa was chipper and loved to play. She liked to go on walks, but not too often. She went just once or twice a day. Rosa loved attention and loved to go outside.

Leah's dog breed was a Husky. The color was white, gray with a little black and brown. The eye color was blue-black with a little bit of brown. Her name was Trixy. She loved to go on walks. She was normal but she was chipper sometimes. And, she loved to play with toys.

All the parents were friends. But there was only one more day until they all had to go back to Florida. They spent one more day with each other. Leah spent time with her family and her dog. They were talking about the parents. They hoped she had lots of adventures. Emily's parents said they hoped each of the friends have good days and good nights.

Olivia's parents told them to be good. They all said Thank You. Then the parents said You are Welcome. So, the next day they left. They said their goodbyes then they left with their dogs in their hands. They left out the door with their full hands and sad faces. But, when they all came back together, their friends celebrated and helped them feel better.

They went rock climbing with real rocks. The colored rocks were fake. They started to climb then they fell. Then tried again. They kept on failing until they got it right. They were so close to reaching the top. They tried one more time and they finally climbed it.

Then, they were on their next adventure. They went to the beach and found some weird stuff. It was something interesting. They asked, "What is this stuff?" to some random person. They said to wait a second. So, then they figured out what color it was. They described the shape. The color was black and dark green. It was smelly and weird looking.

The shape was weirdly shaped, and it looked like a swirly line. So, they asked about it. It was seaweed. Next, they went tree climbing. It was scary and they walked across a wiggly bridge. It was cool but scary.

Emily was on the fourth floor, Leah was on the third, and Olivia was on the second. They all loved it, but Olivia had a fit. She did not like it, so they were done with that.

The next day they went diving into the water. First, they got their stuff on before they went in the water. They went deep into the water. They swam with sharks, dolphins, fish and hammerheads. They were scared out of their minds. Finally, they left out of the sea station.
