4th Grade

Hi, my name is Jason and I'm in fourth grade also my school is weird! Everyday something weird or exciting happens but today was a Monday and it was just my normal routine. I have 2 teachers, so I have Ms. Railey and Ms. Mathews. I actually enjoy school because we get to do a bunch of activities. Today we had to do a light project where we had to write about what we learned so far about light, but we had to do it at home, so it was homework and whoever won got tickets to a BTS concert. At lunch, I saw this man with a big black thick jacket on and it wasn't even cold.

Write baby Write!!!!

After school, I started writing about what I knew about light in my room. I started to end it off with my last sentence close to finishing. Suddenly, my big sister, Jordyn rushed in. I had no idea why she was rushing in my room like that when she stopped, she asked me "Can I borrow your paper really quick?" I had no idea why, but I wanted to be nice, so I said, "Sure just please don't lose it." So, she took it out of my hands and went running to her room.

The Missing papers

I started wondering what that man that had that big black thick jacket on was doing at lunch but I didn't get to think that much because my sister again came running into my room. She said, "I'm sorry I lost the paper!" I asked "how and why?" my sister said "it's because this man said he would make you win the contest but then he just snatched the paper out of my hand but he dropped a paper that said he would be staying overnight tomorrow at school." I was so excited this was going to be an adventure! I started jumping up and down "yay!!"

The Overnight stay

Me and my sister saw the man with the black jacket on with my papers!! I had no idea why he wanted my papers but we had to follow him. First we had to call my teachers Ms. Railey and Ms. Mathews. We told them to come to my house that way they could help us. So we followed him to my school and he first picked the lock to the front doors. I don't know how he did that but he got in apparently. So we followed him just in time to get in too. When we got in we needed a plan so my teacher Ms. Railey said "let's go into the teacher's lounge no one can go in there." We all agreed to go in the teacher's lounge so we went into the teachers' lounge. I couldn't believe we were going to the teachers' lounge because they never let students go there. When we got there the papers were just sitting there on a desk beside the coffee machine. The guy with the black jacket was all the way in the cafeteria. So we took the papers and left.

The Winner Is

The next day, I went to school and we had an assembly. So we went to the cafetorium and we all took a seat on the floor and the principal announced the winner of the light project. He said "the winner is the light project is... Jason! I jumped up immediately and said "wait really?" He said "yes!" I was so excited so I went to the front of the assembly and took the tickets and the whole school started clapping for me. After the assembly was over I ended up giving my VIP tickets to the BTS concert to Sofie B. my friend, she was there biggest fan so I thought she would love the VIP tickets.
