

Lucy's Notebook

By Yaretzi D.

3rd Grade

The day before school started again Lucy's mom drove to the store to buy back to school supplies, while they were shopping Lucy spotted a beautiful pink notebook. So her mom agreed to buy it for her.

Then they drove home and Lucy started playing and doodling in it. As she reached for a new colored pencil her other pencil it started to levitate. "Whoa!" Lucy said with a gasp, she was amazed so much that she didn't realize it was drawing something! She ran and got a new book and she tried to see if another pencil would levitate too, but it didn't work, it just sat on the page like normal. She got a different pencil and put it down but it didn't work again. Then she tried putting the pencil on the pink notebook and boom! It worked!

Then she finally realized it wasn't the pencil it was her notebook! The next day it was school, she was very excited to tell her friends about her new magic notebook. Her teacher gave the year's first assignment in school! "Class, today's warm-up work will be to write about your first day of school."

Lucy was about to write until...the pencil levitated and started writing! Just when her teacher looked back at Lucy's pencil suddenly, it fell! Lucy was shocked but she didn't really care, she thought anyways a lot of weird stuff was happening in her life at the time. But...as her teacher looked away it started levitating again! Then, she realized that when no one was looking, it would levitate, but if someone was looking it would stop. Lucy knew this kind of notebook was not normal and she needed to tell someone to see what she should do with it. But as she was thinking who she would tell that would actually believe her, her pencil fell! And she realized her friend was looking at her but she saw the pencil move! Her friend stared at her for a moment her friend almost fainted as she thought that her friend had magic. Then Lucy explained that the notebook was magic not her. Soon after that, the pencil started levitating again she thought who ever saw the pencil float since they already saw it float that it just wouldn't really care. Her friend asked how she made the pencil float and Lucy said... I don't really know. Her friend thought that Lucy was lying so she got mad at Lucy. Lucy was sad and mad the whole year but she didn't realize it and she had no friends her other one and only friend got mad and they weren't friends because Lucy refused to talk to her. When school ended Lucy started crying and told and showed someone her notebook's powers. They were amazed and scared at the same time. When she went home she felt a little bit better and summer passed and the next year when her and her mom went shopping this time, she saw a beautiful purple notebook.
