Traveling Back in Time with an S.A about Nancy Harkness Love

Chapter 1: Telling you everything from the beginning

Sometimes my brain is turned off during school, or I jest don't want to listen. But, never, ever, have I actually tried to be productive during any subject, or now that I think about ANY THING GOING ON AT SCHOOL. It jest hurts my brain. I think this all started back in Elementary school. Some kids were in a group talking, and sence I am a girl who likes to gossip I wanted to see what was going on. "Hey guys, what going on"? I said. "Ohh, hey! Harley, it's you"! Bailey said. "Hi Bailey, now can you please answer me? Whats going on"? I said inpatiently. "Oh... Sorry..., W umm we're trying to pronounce super-ca-ca-l-l-l umm, i-fr." Bailey said without finishing his sentence. "Spell what now?!" I said. Bailey sighed. "Follow me." Bailey said unenthusically. "Ummm, ok". I said. As we walked I felt that this was a really lazy kid robbery going on, or Bailey was going to show what word he was trying to say earlier. (I really thought it was, was the really lazy kid robbery.) But, my first ever psychic reading was rong. Instead, Bailey took me to the computer lap. He got on the computer and started tiping in something. "Bailey? Whu did you take me here"? I said. "Because I need to show you the video that has the word that I was trying to say earlier in it"> Bailey said a little less unenthusiastically. "Ohh, ok". I said. "Here it is"! Bailey said with a shout. I came closer to see the computer to see the video. After the video ended Bailey got up and started to try to say that weird word he was trying to say earlier. "BAILEY!" What word are you trying to say"? I said. Then Bailey rewind the video to a part that I actually have seen befor I saw this video. Then the word supercalifragilisticexpialidocious popped up in bold letters on the screen. Then Bailey paused the video. "That word is the word I'm trying to pronounce". Bailey said. "Ohhh". I said. "Let me try, super califragilisticexpiasdoschoious”. I said. I knew I did not say it right so that whole day I just kept saying it. That night I kept saying it and the next morning I was tired that I could not think straight. So I think that’s probably why I just can’t think straight any more.

Chapter 2: Mind Blowing!

Now I’m in high school and I am always ready to go to school and fall asleep on my desk. But something unexpected happened. 7:30 my social studies class starts, at 7:32 my teacher, Mr. Jackson starts teaching us. “Morning class A-2”. He said. My eyes widen and I take my head off my desk. 8:05 social studies ended, and I was wide awake. I did not think much of it at the time but then, “Harley! I noticed that you were actually awake this lesson.” Mr. Jaxson said. Then he put a paper on my desk. “Would you be interested in writing a “short” S.A about Nancy Harkness Love”? Mr. Jaxson said. “YES” I said with a shout. The whole class looked at me but I didn’t care. Mr. Jaxson slid the S.A paper towards me and said it was due February 2, 2022. After he left my desk then I noticed what I did.

Chapter 3: My Tiny Problem

At my house I immediately start to scream because I don’t have time for writing an S.A also I don’t know who Nancy Harkness Love even is. After 10 minutes I decide to start the S.A. I went on google and searched up Nancy Harkness Love. I scrolled and scold until I found a tiny article about her. It was tiny but it had a lot of information. I started to write my S.A and after 2-3 hours I finished it.

Chapter 4: Ending

I turned in my paper to Mr. Jaxson the following day, he told me he would inform me when I would be competing to win a contest about Nancy Harkness Love. I didn’t know that the S.A was for a contest! I thought to my self, if I knew I probably would have spent more time on it, but now

I just wait. February 5, 2022 I left school at 11:15am and taken to Tyler for the contest. At 12:00pm the contest began and at 12:47pm I was called up to read my S.A. "Nancy Harkness Love was an American pilot who was a women in the women Airforce. She was also a commader during World War II." The I contunud speacking. 1:43pm the juges anawnsed the winers and I got 2nd place! After that I started listening in class more and all my teachers noticed my change. They were happy and I was happy to.
