Chapter 1 I want a Dog

Hello there I'm Abby and I'd like to tell you what I have wanting for sometime now. I want a dog! It all started when my sister Anna got a dog for her 16th birthday and I fell in love with it! But, when it was my birthday I got a stuffed animal dog. After that moment I was furious with my family. I still love my family, but ever since that moment I wasn't happy with, my family. This only made me want my own dog even more. Then we moved to a new house and you know that means, new school and new friends. It wasn't that hard surprisingly to get used to. I met this girl named Avery, and seemed really nice. We got to know each other, and after a week we became BFF's. She told me that she also had a dog and loved it a lot. When we met, it was in November. December was right around the corner, and before we knew it, it was December 24 Christmas Eve! I was super excited because Christmas was my birthday, and that meant that I would get double the presents! After all the years that has past, I didn't really believe I was ever going to get a dog. So I just stopped wishing for a dog and chose to be happy with Anna's dog.

Chapter 2 My Birthday

So when my birthday came around all I did was watch a movie and eat snacks with my family. Then after the movie was over, my mom said she had to tell me something.... My mom said, " Hey sweetie, your guest is here." I had no idea what and why a guest was here. I asked my mom, and she said it's a party! I had no idea I was getting a party but I couldn't have been happier. The party was really fun. We had cake, we opened presents and there was this huge present and I mean huge like bigger than your head! I saved that present for last. And when I opened it up I was flabbergasted! I GOT A DOG!!! My sister Anna got it. After opening that present, she said "I know you have been wanting a dog ever since my dog came around. I saved all my money up to get you this dog. Right when I observed the dog I had no idea what to name it. I was just so happy. I could name it Max, Rex, Donner but at that moment I just knew what to name it Rex! All I could do was smile after that. Everyone knew what a big deal this was for me. When I say that I would have never thought they'd get me my own dog, they surely gave me the biggest unexpected surprise ever!
