

Marshmellow's Story

Miabella M. – 3rd Grade

When Marshmellow was born the vet didn't know if Marshmellow or his mom were going to make it but one vet named Sophie helped. It took a few days but she did make it. But there was a problem Marshmellow was a sweet white and brown dog but he was blind. Two years later Marshmellow whimpered as he heard all his brothers and sisters laugh and play. "Mom can I please go and play" said Marshmellow. "Oh Marshmellow. We've talked about this" said his mom. After years his mom died so they went to the shelter and day after day his brothers and sisters left. Marshmellow thought will I ever leave. One day a girl named Clair picked him up and took him home. He thought his mission was over but little did he know Clair had a German Shephard named Sox. Marshmellow was scared but Sox showed him he wasn't mean. He played a good game of tug of war with him and they became friends. And to this day Clair, Marshmellow and Sox are friends. The End.
