

Author's Name: Karolina K

2 Girls and Witch Turn In

Once upon a time there was a girl named Avery. She loved spooky things, but her favorite thing was her creepy doll. She slept with her, ate with her, and even brought her to school with her.

It was a halloween night kids were laughing, playing, and having fun, but instead Avery was helping set up for her birthday party. She was so excited she even put up the decorations and sense she loved spooky things, her theme was scary. It was time for her birthday party, Avery ran outside, but no one showed up! Avery just had the urge to run away and she did. She ran away to her room sobbing buckets, she packed her bags and snuck out quietly. Then her parents started calling her name out, "Avery, Avery," her parents started searching for her everywhere, but couldn't find her. While her parents searched for her Avery was just running further and further away from her house. Then she saw a forest, but what Avery didn't know that was a never ending forest, and she saw a house so she went to the house and knocked on the door, but actually it was open. She peaked inside the house and saw pumpkin pie on a plate and a scary movie on, but she couldn't resist to go in. she walked towards the tv. She sat down on the couch and there was the spoon. She took a big bite of the pumpkin pie, but little did she know there was poison in it. Then she collapsed and when she woke up she was laying in a random bed.

Suddenly she heard a mysterious noise coming from the bedroom, then she saw a cat that could turn invisible, and then someone came in the room, it was the bad witch her name was Natasha and she hates children. That's why she traps them. Then Avery gets ready and looks around the house, but at first she was getting scared then she walked into the kitchen and saw a girl. Her name was Yasmin. Yasmin was a really happy girl at first but sense the witch trapped her now she's depressed. Natasha came into the kitchen and told the girls, "I'm going somewhere, don't try to escape." After Natasha left Yasmin went to show Avery the library and say's, "Here you go Natasha wants a story every day," Avery replies, "I can try." Now Avery loves to write stories but not with pressure. While Avery was writing stories Yasmin was going to take care of the garden. After Avery wrote for a couple hours she started to get hungry, so she went to the kitchen to make something when Natasha came home. Apparently it looked like a forest, so after Natasha went into her bedroom Avery took the chance and ran for her life, but didn't make it. Yasmin heard what was going on and made sure everyone was ok. It was the next day and everyone was awake, Yasmin went to check on Avery if she was in the library writing. Then Avery stood up and went to the fourth floor of the library and saw something interesting. There was a crack on a shelf, Avery opened it and it was a secret room. She walked in the room and went down the stairs. Then she reached the last step and saw a coffin. Avery was really confused, she also saw a book. It was a spell book that brings the witch that trapped Natasha when she was a little kid. Avery grabbed that book when Yasmin came in and whispered, "What are you doing?" Avery got scared and started reading the spell in the book, "Witch to witch come alive," and kept repeating that.

When she stopped the witch in the coffin moved and started yelling, the house started to shake and the girls started to run, but Natasha came to see what was going on and she saw the witch out of her coffin and the witch killed her. The girls ran into the forest and they kept running and running when they saw Avery's home they ran so fast no one saw them. Avery burst down the front door and when both of their parents were there. They ran into both of their arms and started crying because they were scared, but I would also be scared. The moral of the story is no matter what make sure your guardians know where you are because then it would cause panic.

The End

