

Skyler Garcia's Big... Dreams!

By Haylee M.

One day there was a little girl named Skyler, and she was 8 years old. She wanted to be a super star but there was one problem... nobody thought she was good enough to be one! When she was at school she would always tell everybody that she wanted to be a singer or superstar but they always would scrunch up their nose up and act like they didn't care. Of course Skyler thought "how rude" but she never said it out loud. Skyler even told her parents and her 13 year old brother Jack, but he never listens to her anyways, so she decided not to tell him. She would always try to tell her parents, but they were always busy so they would forget easily. Since nobody would ever listen to her she began to feel discouraged, but she wasn't completely discouraged, she thought to ask one more friend. When she went back to school she asked a girl who would always get bullied, had no friends, and was always lonely. During school time she would always draw little doodles in her school note books. Since she loved to draw and since Skyler loved to sing, she thought that the girl was the perfect one to ask. She said "Umm I want to be a superstar, and do you think that I am good enough to be one?" It took her a few seconds to think, she said "I think you would be a perfect singer or superstar." Then she said, "Why did you ask me? Nobody usually ever talks to me or plays with me," she said sadly. I said "I'll play with you at recess." She said "Oh really" surprised. Sooner or later we became best friends. She was my best friend that year and I was hers. She was like a sister that I've never had. Even if nobody thought that I was good enough or had the talent to be a singer... I am still not going to doubt myself or not believe in myself, and with that courage, my best friend and I have a singing group today!