

The Disappearing Island

---

One lovely morning there was a little girl named Lila and she lived on an island. One day when she was playing she stared at the sea wondering if her father was still out there looking for her.

Lila's father went out to the water 7 years ago just to go fishing and never came back. Lila said she was going to find him and she said this like she was determined to find him.

That night Lila gathered all her things and set sail. The next day Lila's mother did her early morning routine, take a shower, brush her teeth and wake up Lila.

This morning was different she went in Lila's room and could not find her, she looked everywhere around the house, trust me everywhere!

While Lila was on the boat her tummy growled, she was hungry, luckily she brought some food in her backpack. Suddenly she sees something in the water, it's glowing. Lila's mother always says to listen to your heart and her heart is telling her to go away.

The next morning Lila continued to search for her father. A few hours later Lila approached a big island, it was foggy and dark. She then saw a human body standing on the island, it was her DAD!!!! She picked him up and said "Hello I am Lila and I believe you are my father..." The man said "I don't know, what is your mother's name?" Lila then tells him her mother's name is Nina and he responds "Yes I am your father." They both went back to their island and lived a happy life.

Maya R.