

The Girl That Lost Her Book

By: McKenzie M.

This is a story about the girl that lost her book. This girl name was Annie. She love reading. One day Annie was so excited because she was going to the library. One day Annie got home she told her mother that her class was going to the library tomorrow. Her mother give her 20 dollars. The next morning Annie class began getting ready to go visit the library. When they go in a straight line, the library teacher told the class to go pick out a good book. Annie chose a book called Jenny and the Bee. It was this girl who want that book her name was Jess. She was so mad when Annie's class got into the room. Jess got an idea to steal the book from Annie. Annie was doing her work she had to use the bathroom. Annie ask the teacher to use the bathroom the teacher said yes. When she went to use the bathroom Jess went by her desk and took the book. When Annie came she saw her book was missing and she started to cry. The teacher ask why was Annie crying. Annie told the teacher that she lost her book. But the teacher told Annie that the class was going back to the library friday. Annie said ok. Annie looked all over the classroom and she could not find it. Annie asked Jess if she seen the book. Jess said no. When the class stared to get ready to go home the teacher said that we are going to the library tomorrow because the library teacher had to do something on Friday. Annie got scared that she was going to have to pay for it. When she got home she told her mother. Her mother said it will be fine. The next morning Jess came up to Annie and said I have your book. Annie said you have my book. Jess explain herself said do you forgive me? Annie said I do and they gave each other a big hug.

The end