All About Nneoma

On October 30, 2012 I was born. When I turned 1, in 2013, I learned to walk, and when I turned 2, I learned how to talk.

In 2015 I learned how to draw like this:

In 2016 my brother was born and really cute, but now he's really annoying. I wanted a sister but that all right. I am happy to have a little brother though. It's kind of nice. For his birthday when he turned 4, we went to the Bounce Bounce Lagoon!

Me and my brother are still kind of friends, but frenemies are what we are. Lotanna always sneaking in my room. Anyway, my birthday is the day before Halloween and I want a ghost themed party, but we are going to my cousin's church.

On my last birthday I had a mermaid themed party at my cousin's house. It was so much fun.

My baby cousin Chiche is one years old. There also Chichi, Enyi, Chizoba, Ikennaya, Chiza, Nnamdi, KK, Nathan, and more!
