Ocean Adventure

One day this boy named Marcus went swimming with his sister Arica and she was 2. Arica had floatties but Marcus was drowning. When he was at the bottom of the pool he saw his mom. She said "hi sweetie". He said "m-mom". So Arica noticed he was drowning so she told the life guard "Help my 13 year old brother is d-dying! He said "I don't care!" (Sighs) you're a mean person!" But then the brother swoops her of her feet and says "are you okay". She says "you're a-alive! (Memories) did you see the other mother under the water! She says "no". He says "oh well check then". She checks and nothing. The brother checks but this time it's his dead dad. He screams. So he eats in the water but his sister is 26 years old now.
