

The mystery of Everfrost

His heartbeat slowly stopping, he whispered his last words before he was gone, “the map is in a hidden room inside my office, you must continue my work. Be brave Lilly I believe in you.” Her father whispered weakly. After that, his heartbeat stopped those were his last words. Lilly knew she HAD to continue his father's work.

Although she was sad, she was able to hold back her tears her mom died before her dad. She was all alone, and sad. Lilly ran home as fast as she could and went to her father's room. And ripped the whole room apart, she found a room behind the mirror and went inside, and she found the map to the portal that leads to the treasure. She looked at it while walking out of the secret room, Lilly found out she had to go to the backyard and dig a hole. She dug the hole and found the portal she was scared to go in, but she knew she needed to. She went through the portal and there was a dark cave. It looked like somebody's nightmare, but it was not, it was real, "this is not a dream" she mumbled to herself. Once she went through the portal everything stopped, she saw yellow swirly things and then she saw a bat. Lilly screamed. "Follow me" the bat said, he can talk Lilly wondered, then the bat realized she was glowing, the bat knew that Lilly was here to find the treasure because if a person was glowing. she was a part of John's family her great grandfather's family. So, the creature went to Lilly and introduced himself to her "hi my name is Frost what's yours?" "Um Lilly" she answered softly. "so you're here to find the treasure, right?" asked Frost gasps "how do you know that I'm trying to find the treasure?" said Lilly surprised. "cause your glowing, didn't you notice?" Lilly looked at her body she was glowing "why am I glowing?" asked Lilly. "Because you are a part of John's family" "John my great grandfather how do you know about him?" asked Lilly "he sent me here to help his family members find the treasure he hid. The people who glow means they are a part of his family so ready to start our journey, but I do have to warn you it is extremely dangerous," said frost. "Yes, I know my parents died because of trying to find this treasure." As they entered it became super dark but thankfully Lilly was glowing. Then out of nowhere a giant spider came crawling and started attacking them. But Lilly saw a door right next to the spider “Frost slide under the spider to get to the door he is too tall to catch us underneath.” Thankfully, they got to the next door safely when she was walking to the next door, she accidentally stepped on a brick that unleashes arrows she froze and thought, could this be the end of me. Frost made a shield using his magic and blocked all the arrows “Lilly you really need to be more careful this is a more dangerous place than you think” said frost while putting his shield back using magic. “Sorry Frost I’ll be more careful next time I promise.” As they entered the next-door Lilly was about to fall in lava “whoa that was scary why is there lava in here Frost” “I told you there are a lot of tricky obstacles, you really need to pay more attention it is dangerous out there,” said Frost. Lilly started jumping on the rocks in the lava and she realized that the rocks were sinking “Oh god I must jump fast or else I will sink in the lava” Lilly thought to herself. “Yay you made,” screamed Frost. Lilly and Frost made it to the treasure, but it was guarded by Cerberus. Lilly tries to fight them off, but she got bitten by them thankfully it was not serious “Did you know this is the same why your parents died Lilly,” asked Frost. “Luckily your bite isn't that serious I can heal you and you will be ok” Frost said quickly “we still have a Cerberus to fight,” said Frost while running” “oh I have an idea Frost can you make a piece of gigantic meat to lure him away so we can get the treasure.” Frost did as he was told to, and they got the Treasure. They got the gold chest and Frost opened the yellow portal for Lilly and she went through “goodbye Frost it was nice meeting you” “bye Lilly, I will miss you” Frost said “me too bye Frost” Lilly said sadly. Then Lilly walked through the portal, and she was back on earth again, Lilly then opened the chest and inside it was a revive stone, so she went to her parents grave and once she was there her parents appeared it worked Lilly found the treasure to bring her parents back she did not know what she did but when Lilly found out she brought her parents back she was so relieved “Lilly you saved us” Lillys dad said happily. “You saved us Lilly you found the reviving stone and brought us back” her mom said with excitement “I'm just glad you guys are ok I was really worried, and I don't know what I would've done without you two I love you guys" Lilly screamed. After that they did not have to worry about anything, they went home, and everything was back to normal.
