Chapter 1

This is a story about Alyssa. Who more than anything wants to get a farm. But she can't because her family is too poor to get a farm and her dream is to have a horse and a bunch of different animals. Every time she would go to her friend's house she would ride her horse because her friend Elianna had a farm and she would go every week. So when she got a lot of money she got a horse and her dream came true she got a horse and other animals! And she got a barn! She was so happy her head almost touched the ceiling. She signed up for many horse races and named her horse her name was Penelope she would brush her, feed her, and clean her. Her parents were so proud she got 1st place in every race that's when she knew she got the right horse. But one day they were racing and her horse tripped and she gasped "oh no!" What happened "crying" She rushed her to the vet "someone help!" She said. She was so sad she loved her so much she prayed but sadly her sweet Penelope passed she was in her heart no matter what she never moved her in her heart she was everything to her.

Chapter 2

So her horse was in peace Alyssa knew she was gonna be there soon. So she went to get another horse she named it, she took lots of care, played with her, and her name was Ellie. She was just a baby so she can't really race yet but I'm training her she is almost there. She just needs to be a little older. And there it was, it was Ellie's birthday. She's finally old enough so Alyssa scheduled a race for her. Next thing you know she was great she got first place she reminded Alyssa of Penelope. It was a great start she loved the races. Alyssa's horse friends came over, they brought their horses and Ellie loved them "She's a perfect fit", said Alyssa.
