The nerd who became popular

Chapter 1

One day Diane the nerd decided to make friends but that was going to be hard because... she is the least popular and everyday she always gets laughed at, being bullied, and getting left out but then during class Mrs. Green announced that prom was coming up, and 1 week later like half the entire school got a date to prom already like people it's in 5 weeks but the popular boy didn't get a date to prom yet. She thought maybe if she gets more popular she may get him to be her date to prom! The next morning Diane woke up to the sound of her alarm clock ringing, and she ate a banana and ran to school. As soon as she got in the classroom she got a piece of paper and pencil and started listing down ways to become more popular enough to get the popular boy for her prom date. Then bully Jacob came took one look at the paper snatched it and torn it up until it was as small as a grain of sand. Diane actually did not start crying right away because the ideas would probably not work anyway. Jacob saw that she was actually not tearing up so he decided to announce all the ideas on the list from first to last everybody laughed at her. Over the last few days Diane tried to forget what happened but everybody kept reminding her what happened.

Chapter 2

Soon Diane started to wonder, will actually become more popular if she gets the popular boy for her date to prom? By the way, the popular boy's name is Jake. Will people hate her even more? Clearly she was over thinking. The only reason she thought she could get Jake to be her date to prom was that her mom was a super x9 model, and the only reason people actually decided to come to her birthday party. When Diane got home she asked her mom, mom can you do my makeup everyday because prom is coming up and I want to get a date to prom. Diane's mom said sure but not every morning because I have to make some commercials for my company. Diane said that was fine with her because she was not really used to wearing makeup anyway so that was fine with her.

Chapter 3

This morning my mom did my makeup and gave me some popular clothes, and about 5 minutes later I made like 9 friends, and Jake actually talked to her for the first time in her life. This new life made her feel like she was the main character of the entire universe and prom is tomorrow. The next morning at school there was a big fight between Jake and his girlfriend after the fight and the breakup there was a lot of rumors that Jake might ask Diane for his prom and when she heard the rumor she instantly put her fingers crossed during free period Jake asked Diane for if she wanted to be his date to prom and she said yes that the principal could even hear it, and at 7 pm was the prom at school. That day Diane and her mom went dress shopping, put on some makeup, and hit the road once Diane arrived Jake and Diane started dancing, and that was the story of Diane the nerd who became popular.
