

Author: Toshani P.

BOB

Chapter 1

Bob's first day at the dog park

Once upon a time in College Station ,Texas there lived a dog named Bob. Bob was a very cute dog. One day while he was taking a nap, his owner suddenly picked him up, took him to the front door and put his leash on! Bob didn't know where he was going or what he was doing 😞 but he knew for sure he was going to have fun because whenever he had his leash it meant he would be able to run around. When Bob went out of the house he saw that he was walking towards his doggy friends 😊! When Bob and his friends got to the place he saw that it was a park but a miniature version. Bob was scared 😬 of the big dogs at the dog park so he stayed put next to his owner.

Chapter 2

Bob goes missing

When Bob was sitting next to his owner a person left the park but the person forgot to close the gate. Meanwhile a squirrel was collecting his nuts but the squirrel saw the big dogs and got scared so he zoomed across the park towards the open gate 😱. When Bob saw the squirrel run out the open gate he ran after it. The squirrel ran to the forest and kept on running and never stopped and Bob just followed. Suddenly Bob realized that he was lost because he was in the middle of the forest.

Chapter 3

Bob makes a new friend

When Bob realized that he was lost he sat under a tree and started crying. At that moment a rabbit named Jeremy came to Bob and asked him “Why are you crying? Bob said “ Because I’m lost 😞 . I was at the dog park then I chased a squirrel all the way here. ” Jeremy Laughed and said, “I know that park”. So Jeremy took Bob to the dog park and they became very good friends.

Chapter 4

Home sweet home

When they got to the park they saw that Bob's owner wasn't there 😞 . But then they saw Bob's friend’s owner, then Bob's friend’s owner picked Bob up and took him to the car. When Bob got inside he saw that there were a bunch of buttons so he decided to press one of them when he did the car started making a large beeping sound . Bob got scared and started to howl 😱 . Then, his friend’s owner turned the sound off and took him to his house where his owner was waiting for him. And they lived happily ever after.

The end!