

Ahniya P. – 4th Grade

Once there was a little girl named Alia. She's a princess and her mom and dad spoils her like crazy!! One time they tried to buy Alia a mansion but she didn't let them. Alia is very caring and she didn't like to get spoiled she just wanted to live a normal life for once. The royal ball is coming up and Alia is turning 16 for her 16 birthday she didn't want anything but of course her mom and dad were making her birthday big. Today is Monday and Alia's birthday is tomorrow Alia got ready for bed and prayed nothing bad would happen or something crazy. The next day Alia opened one eye and saw decorations her mom and dad were right in front of her and yelled HAPPY BIRTHDAY ALIA!!! Alia sighed and put her pillow over her head. A hour later Alia got ready for the ball. She had dark red dress on and she looked as beautiful as a model. She was shy but she didn't show it was all in the inside. As soon as she walked in she saw lots of people and attention went on Alia. Alia just closed her eyes and walked. All the girls were jealous of Alia and all the boys wanted to marry Alia. This one girl came up to Alia and said you know your not that beautiful Alia said I didn't say I was beautiful. Then the girl said Alia was ugly Alia ran out of the ball angry. A few days later Alia decided to go to school and learn more. She told her parents and they agreed with Alia to learn more. Alia was going to school in paris. Alia's mom and dad paid for Alia to get on a plane and go to paris. While Alia got on the plane she cried but she tried not to. When she got on the plane she fell asleep and people on the plane did not recognize Alia as a princess. She got to paris it was so amazing thought Alia. She found the school and made lots of friends but soon she had to go she was the top A student and she thought of going back to see her parents and then go to Texas. Alia got on the plane and when she got of she hurry to the taxi to see her mom and dad she was so elated to see them. When she got there she ran to the door and knocked and knocked and her dad came to the door and gave her a big hug then her mom came and gave her a hug. Alia told her mom and dad that she plans to go to Texas after she stays with her mom and dad for a month. Alia's mom and dad tried to spoil her again but Alia got mad and packed all her stuff and went to Texas. Alia was amazed in Texas she went to fairs, eat out places, and saw cool cars. Alia saw a sign outside it said adventure for you she called the number and she meet them on sea shore city it was so much water around but it looked cool around. They gave her a ride to the place it looked like some type of karate place. She went inside and saw people doing karate. She saw the person on the paper and she went to him and said can I try out? He said yes you may. Alia was the only girl here but it didn't matter to her. First he taught her to kick and it was easy and she passed the first belt. Then he taught her to use her hands, which was also easy for her. Then the final challenge was to fight and she got hit a couple times but she won. Alia left the sea shore city and thanked the karate teacher for teaching her karate. She then got a business job and it was going well until there was a break in. A man tried to rob the business company. It was good Alia knew how to do karate the man threatened there boss to kill him if he didn't get what he wanted. Alia snuck behind him and kicked him. He passed out and the cops came to take the robber away. Alias boss thanked her and he also fell in love with her. A month later he asked to go out with her Alia said yes. He took her to her favorite restaurant. Then they ate the food and left. They have been together for a year now he wants to propose to her and he did of course she said yes. The they had two babies.