

The world is filled with unknown things. Even more in walls of wood oaks high school. The geeks were cool, the cheer leaders were smart, and the jocks couldn't lift a weight! The most particular thing though was that the shy girl was the Vice President of the student Council. Everyone knew her as Mazie. She always gave the best speeches and muttered a lot during them, but she was pretty cool. One day her best friend Wonda was being bullied by the dumb cheerleaders. Mazie yelled at them to go away or else! They didn't listen just mocking her. The school had really weird teachers and people would often find slime in the janitors closet, so Mazie ran down the hall with her best friend being followed by the cheerleaders, and ran straight for the janitors closet. There were old theater costumes in there and an old lightbulb that had beads hanging down to pull and turn on. From the screams she heard outside the oozing slimy door, Mazie knew she accomplished her goal. As she turned on the light she noticed a boarded up wall behind the clothes. Her friend was tugging on her sleeve to come, but she was curious to know what was behind the wall. She unscrewed the bolts and yanked off the wood boards. It was all bricked up! And all day at school after that she knew what she had to do, so she gathers up the courage to sneak out the house and headed for the school. It was pretty old so she could easily find a broken window to crawl through. When she went searching for the hole in the wall there was none, just a glowing light coming from the inside, almost blinding! She quickly went inside thinking it was a dream. When she went in she couldn't believe her eyes! There was a beautiful underground world!!! And inside was these amazing creatures, unicorns, mermaids, and dragons of all sorts! There was a pool as clear as the sky and the grass was edible as she saw them eating it! She ran to the first thing she saw and everyone stopped to stare at her. The unicorns turned into the mean cheerleaders, and the dragons turned into the jocks, and the mermaids and merman were the geeks! The teachers were different monsters she'd never seen before!!! Mazie called her best friend Gemma but there was no answer, and she was afraid they had done something to her, that's when she noticed a light ringing coming from the water, and mermaid! She now knew why her school was so weird and decided to run as fast as she could. 3, 2... Mazie heard a voice from the cave, it was Gemma. She apologized and told her that they needed to blend in with the world and that a school was a perfect idea, and that she wasn't alone. That's when Mazie turned into a bat! She smiled and finally felt like she wasn't alone, she had finally found people who get her! After that Mazie felt like she belonged in this wak-a-do world herself!
