The Haunted House on Mapul Street

Once there was a girl named Jesica People called her the darer. Anything you wanted her to do she will do it. One day someone dared her to go to the old haunted house on mapul Street so she went to the house and heard someone say... "TAKE IT OR DIE!" She said, "What does that mean!?! " Whatever it was it kept saying it, each time louder and louder. She tried to get out but the door did not open she was scared then a light shined on what was keeping her trapped in the house. She was there for 1 day there were loads of search party's from the police. Then Jesica woke up she though she must have pasted out she was in a large tunnel so she ran and then....She finally noticed the monster that was chasing her! She ran super-fast she made safely thru the dare. Jesica knew she could have been killed. Jesica heard on an tercom, "Great job now challenge two." She saw a hole in the wall the room was getting smaller and smaller. Jesica had to thing fast and so she crawled through the hole and she made it but....SHE NOTICED THE MONSTER WAS RIGHT BEHIND HER!!! The monster sadly smashed the little girl's body along with her organs but this time she did not pass out nor did she black out she was knocked out dead. Jesica was now a victim of the monster. The police found Jesica's body and they also found the monster and the monster was captured and killed.
