

The Love Run

By: Kayden A. 6th Grade

Love is oblivious that
You can change all your Feelings that make you
Feel like you've just
Been obliterated out
Of the world like an
Asteroid like love
It is continuous
It revolves around
Us like the world
And comes back
Every day and starts
A fresh beginning
To find yourself
Love is full of regrets
That breaks your heart
Into pieces that doesn't
Ever come back together
It shatters once and
Will be hard to be recovered
Back to its normal phase
