

The Alien Catcher

By: Trevor B.

Jack is obsessed with anything outer space, but mostly aliens. Jack knew that finding aliens on earth would be a long shot so he decided the only way to actually see an alien is to go to outer space! "Houston we have a problem!" he thought. He wouldn't be able to get there so he asked, "Mom, can we go to the space station?" and guess what she said "Yes!" "YAY!" Jack shouted. They hopped in their car and drove the short distance to the NASA Space Center. When they got there Jack ran as fast as a cheetah to the spaceship on display and jumped in. He started to go crazy pushing so many buttons, when suddenly he BURST upward.... one hour later.... he looked outside the small window. HE WAS ON AN ALIEN PLANET!!!! He quickly put on a space suit and jumped out of the ship.. On the horizon he saw a tiny city , a flash of something caught his eye, it looked like "metal? Then he saw it, a robot! It was short and veeeeerrrrryyy slow. "Wait a second . That robot looks like the robot wallee from that movie" Jack said. Maybe I should go tell mom to come here.I am going to go get her. He decided. "Waaaait" "uh oh, I can't breath in outer space" " aaarrgghhh" " hhmhhh this planet must have oxygen I am going to go to the village after I get mom. So he got on the ship and went to earth again. When he got there
